Week 7!!

Production News

- Production rates are generally up with more early day Timber laps
- One member is pushing the PLR numbers high in the last few days
- Few if any PLL (Pre-Lunch Leavers)
- Laps turned are much more aggressive – unfortunately doesn't show on any graphs

DPR (Distance Production Rate)

RPR (Run Production Rate)

VP Rates (Vertical Production)

Individual v Group Vertical

Thoughts for the week

- Ladies Day
  - Angel fell
  - Girrillas in the mist
  - 6 Ladies out
  - Lower ballet pirouette record
56 this year

The Indomitable

- Def'n – impossible to subdue or defeat, someone is strong, brave determined
- Can you use that in a sentence please – “ The indomitable snow pigs are out every day and never are defeated by snow, chairlifts or cold”.

Chairlift Seating

- Bear and Elk – which side
- Left
- Unless less than a full Chair – then middle
- Deer
- Alone
- Timber – 3 then centre, 4 far right
- Elk 3 is centre left
- Easiest – just listen for instruction

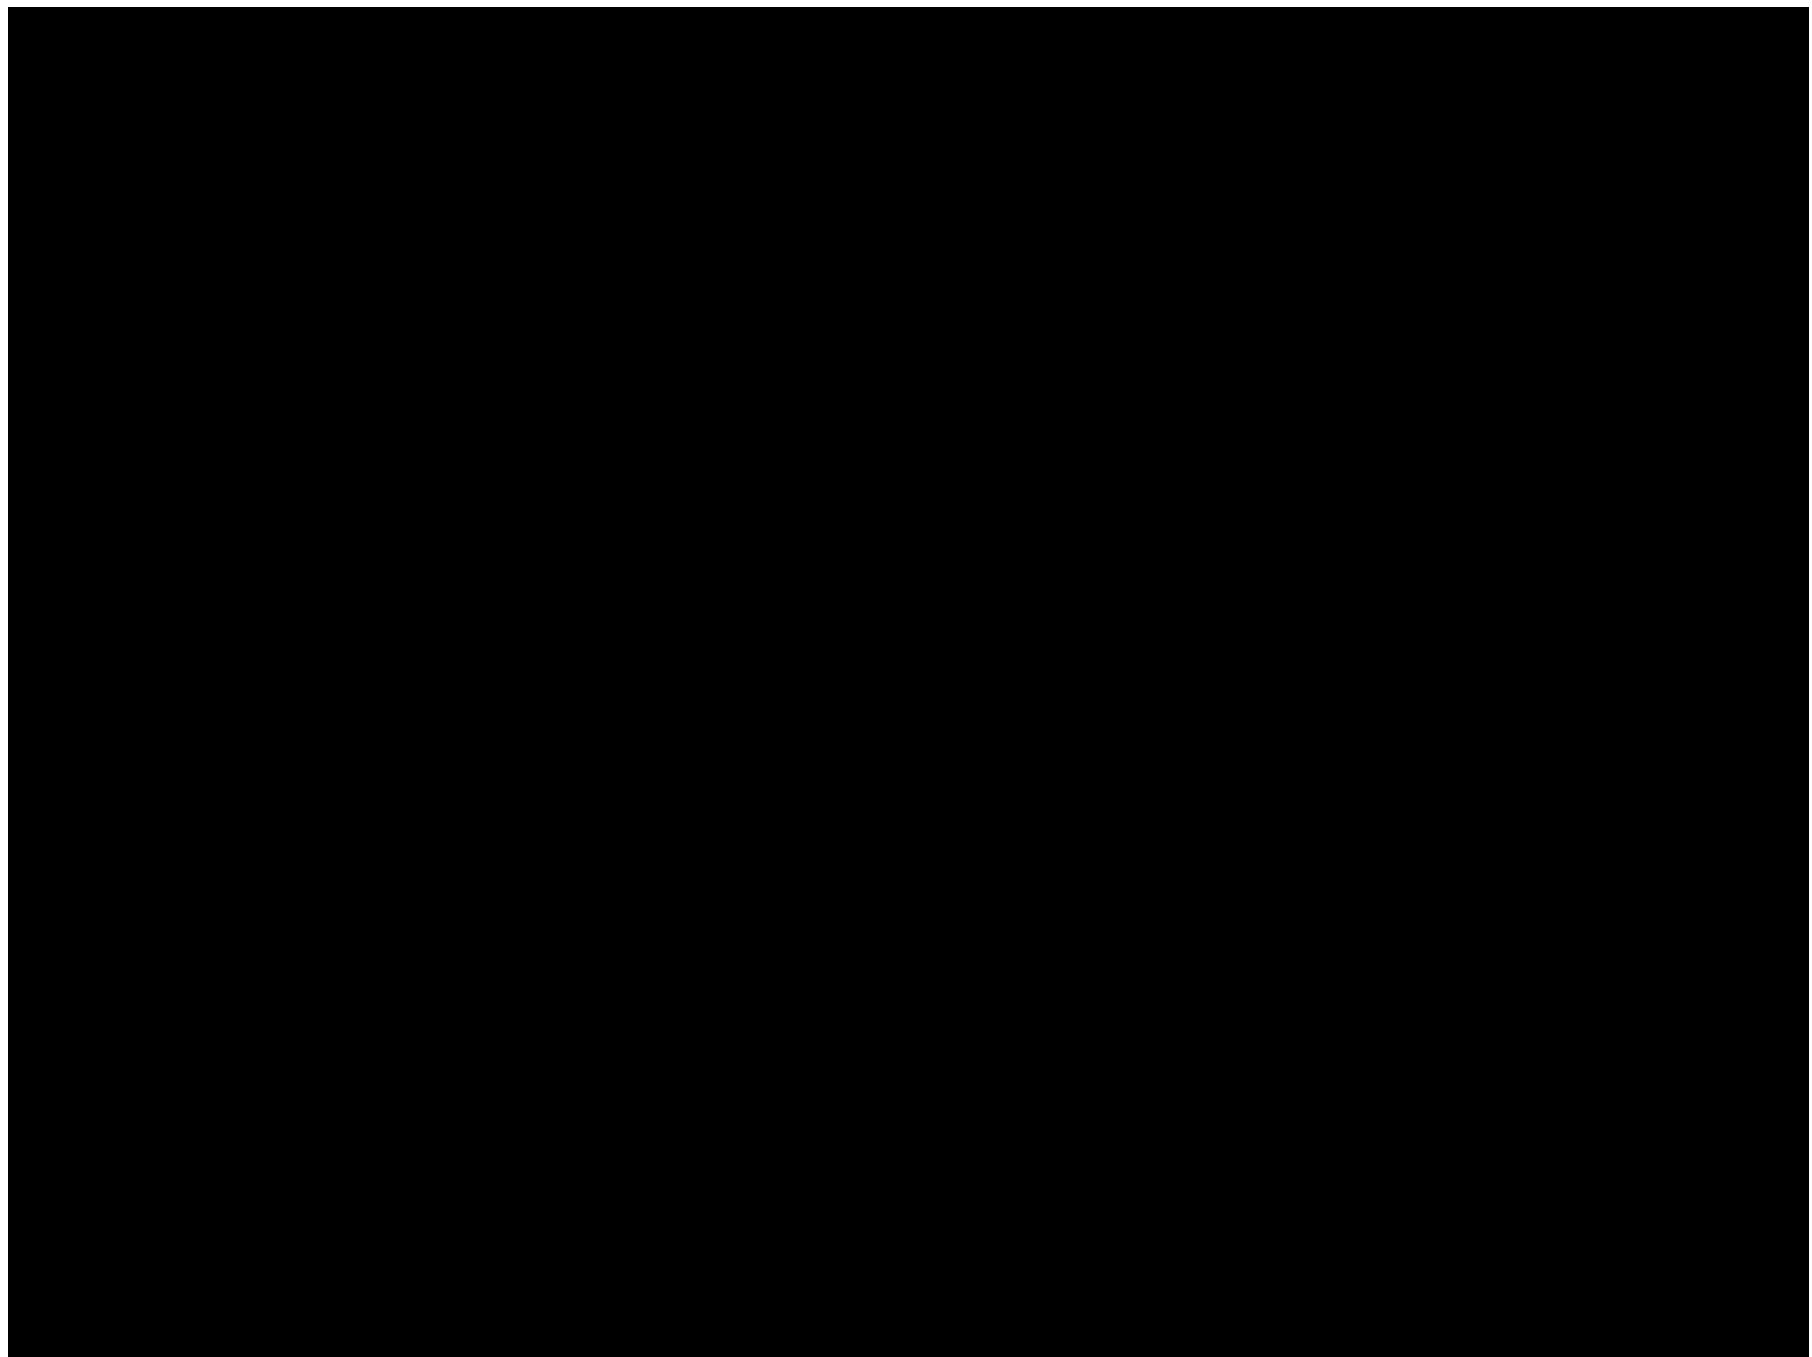

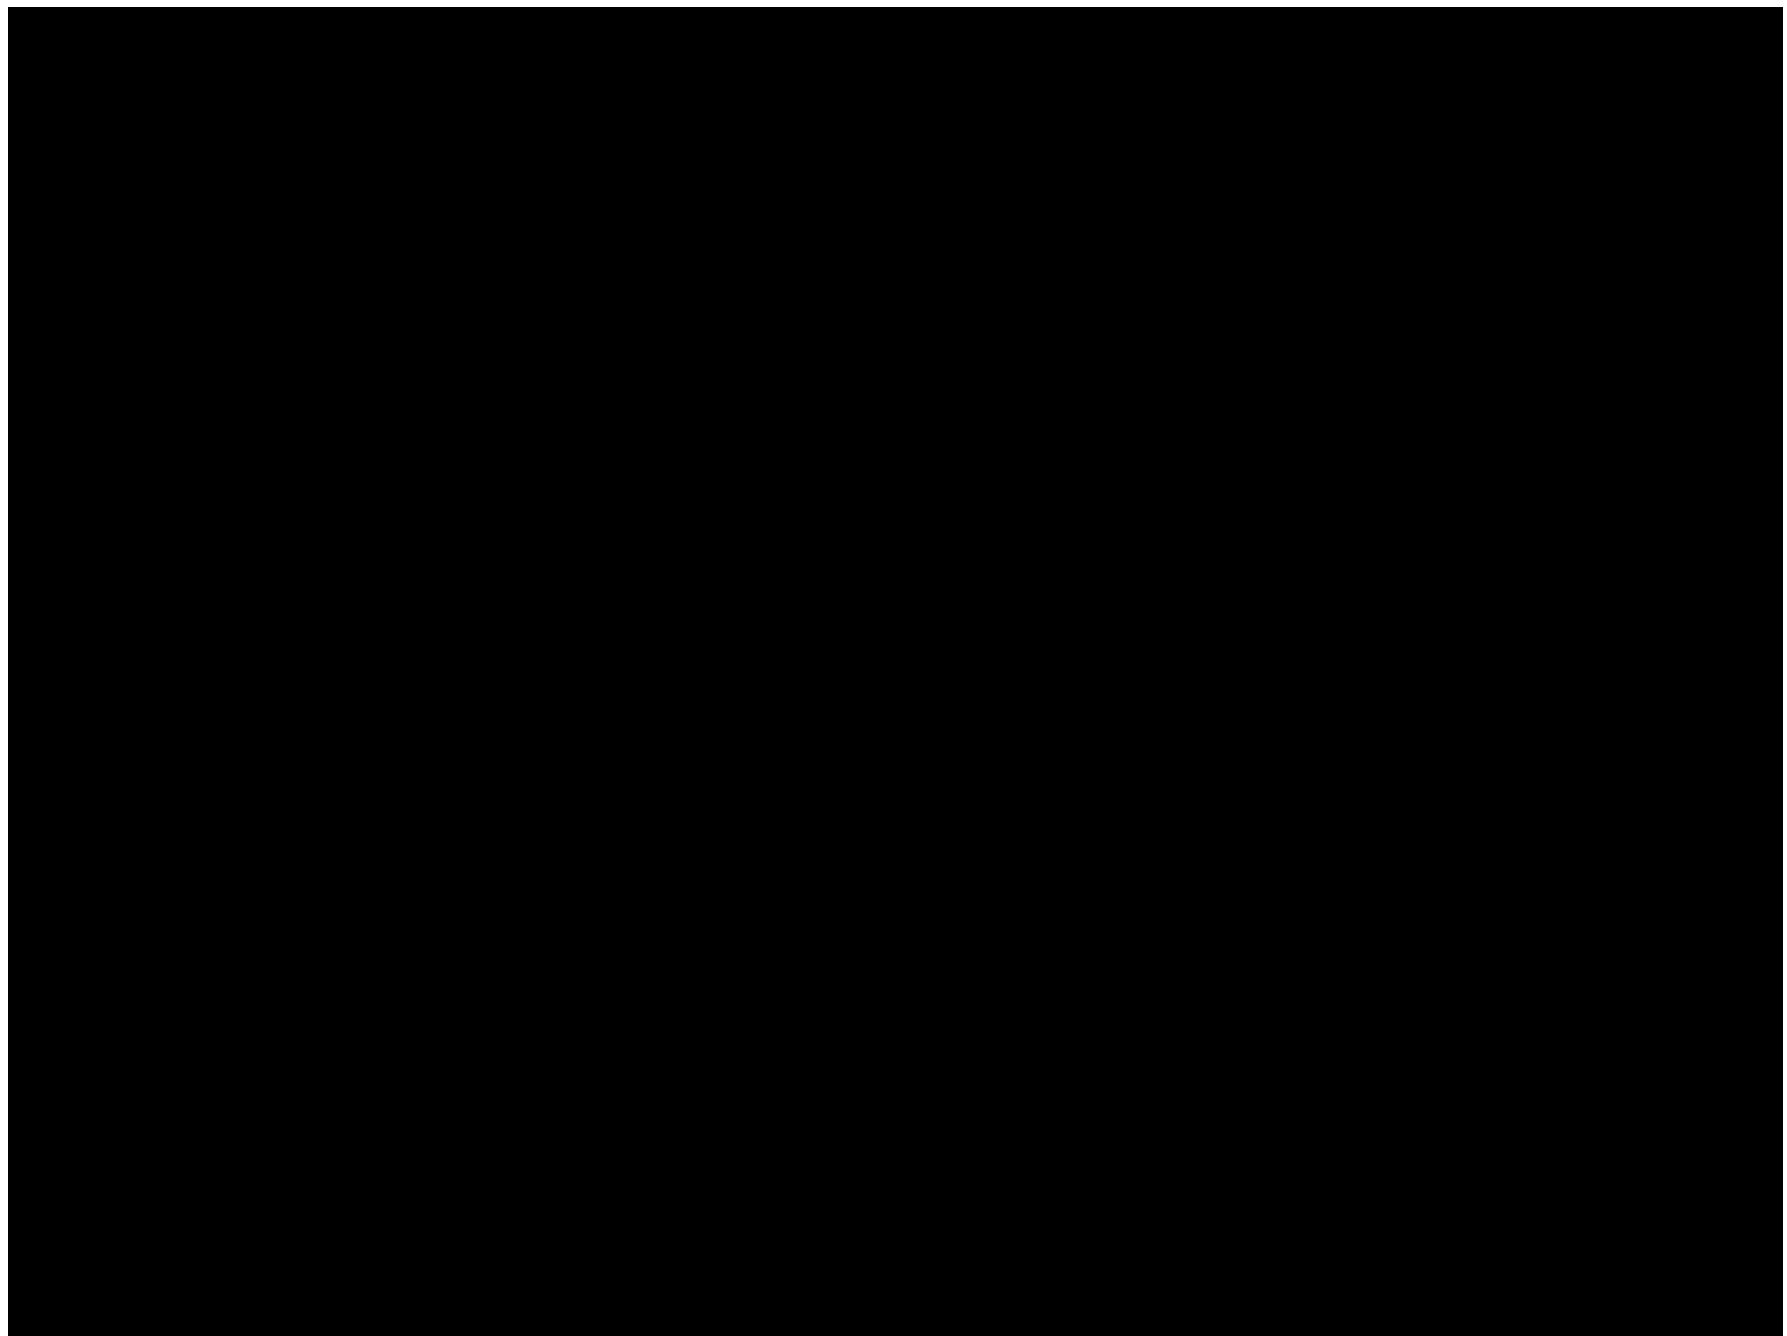

Well that was spectacular .....but who is going to walk the dog? Right up there with "Does this mean no pork chop tonight?"

The Pig Committee

- Pig is heading to paint
- Skis to be mounted on frame this week
- Wings to be attached to pig this week
- Pigs will fly
